

SALE-READY ESSENTIALS CHECKLIST

This is not a “to-do list” — you don’t need to rewrite, reformat, or improve anything. It simply helps you see what buyers and lenders typically ask for so you can avoid delays when you decide to sell.

Section	Item	Ready	Needs Attention	Unsure	Quick Tip
1. Financial Clarity	P&Ls, balance sheets, and tax returns generally align	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Totals should roughly match. Buyers will verify; you don’t need perfection, just consistency.
	AR/AP aging reports available	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Export your latest versions. No need to clean up every old invoice.
	Debt schedule / loan & lien information listed	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	A simple list of loans, leases, or liens is enough. Buyers value transparency over cleanup.
2. Legal & Documentation	Operating agreement / formation docs accessible	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Keep a current copy handy — no rewriting needed.
	Key contracts assignable (customers, vendors, lease)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Ask, “Could these transfer to a new owner?” That’s enough for now.
	Business licenses & insurance current	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Check renewal dates and keep confirmation copies.
3. People & Operations	Key employees identified	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	List names and roles. No full job descriptions needed.
	Payroll records / contractor agreements	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Digital or printed copies are sufficient — no reformatting.
	Basic workflow summary of “who does what”	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	A quick note or bullet list. No SOPs required.
4. Assets & Obligations	Updated equipment / asset list	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	One list with approximate age/condition is fine.
	Vehicle titles, loans, or leases organized	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Keep copies in one place for reference.
	Outstanding debts or liens documented	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Don’t pay them off — just disclose them.
5. Transition & Confidence	Estimated handoff period in mind	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	You only need a rough idea (e.g., 1–6 months).
	Personal timing preference (seasonality, lifestyle)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Think broad: before busy season? After year-end?
	Key business records stored together	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	A single folder (digital or physical) is one of the biggest time savers for diligence.
